

2019 NOTABLE WOMEN IN LAW

Senior Partners Hill & Moin named as Crain's 2019 Notable Woman in Law

The path to success

Hill and Moin LLP is proud to announce that Melisande Hill and Cheryl Eisberg Moin have been selected to the Crain's 2019 list of Notable Women in Law. This award reflects the national recognition of one of the most respectable publications in the United States.

MELISANDE HILL

Partner

HILL & MOIN

After more than a decade working at some of the top personal injury law firms in New York City, Melisande Hill co-founded Hill & Moin in 1997 with a goal of providing clients with personalized, results-oriented representation. Hill, a superlative trial attorney puts her more than 38 years of experience to work at the personal injury law firm, where she and co-founder Cheryl Moin have collectively won more than $180 million in verdicts and settlements, and handled thousands of cases. Sandy is known for her brilliant mentoring of young attorneys and her ability to think out of the box. She is also an active member of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

CHERYL

EISBERG MOIN

Partner

HILL & MOIN

Cheryl Eisberg Moin is co-founder and co-managing partner of Hill & Moin, one of the few women-led personal injury law firms in the city. With more than 35 years of experience, Moin has represented plaintiffs in more than 250 appeals affirming multimillion-dollar verdicts and has obtained precedent setting decisions on complex issues of first impression before the New York State Court of Appeals. An accomplished lecturer, Cheryl Moin has spoken at a variety of symposiums and conferences, including those held by the New York City Bar Association. She has also served as a member of the board of directors and chair of the Amicus Brief Committee of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.